Important information regarding changes to spousal joint accounts opened in Quebec

Effective December 8, 2022, regulatory changes were introduced in Quebec impacting joint deposit accounts opened in Quebec and held between spouses or former spouses including married, civil union and de facto spouses.

Customers can now make a joint declaration to assign a percentage share in the account balance for the purpose of distribution upon the death of one of the accountholders, failing which a default share of 50 per cent each will apply. For more information, visit bmo.com/quebecspousaljointaccounts.

2023 Trustee Notification and Collection of Beneficiary Information by April 30, 2023

Bank of Montreal, Bank of Montreal Mortgage Corporation, and BMO Trust Company (collectively "BMO") are proud members of Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation (CDIC) and as such are required to annually remind trustee depositors to provide us with updated beneficiary information ensuring strong CDIC deposit insurance protection.

For more information, please see

<https://www.cdic.ca/financial-community/for-trustees/for-professional-trustees/timeline/>

If you are a Trustee who holds deposits for others, you have certain obligations you must meet to help ensure that those deposits continue to be protected by CDIC for up to $100,000 per beneficiary.

You must:

- Confirm that the deposit is held in trust;
- Provide the full name of each trustee of the deposit, and the address of at least one trustee;
- Provide the full name and address of each beneficiary of the deposit account that you hold in trust for them; and
- If there is more than one beneficiary to the deposit account, provide the interest of each beneficiary in the funds held in the trust account, as a percentage of the trust

The required information as above, must be provided to us by April 30, 2023.

You may do so by visiting the closest BMO branch location or calling your branch or Relationship Manager.

If you do not provide us with the required information and keep it up-to-date, the deposits that you hold in trust for others may not receive CDIC deposit insurance protection up to $100,000 per beneficiary. CDIC relies on the latest information on our records to protect your deposits.

For more information on the responsibilities of trustee depositors, please visit:

<https://www.cdic.ca/financial-community/for-trustees/>

Please note that certain Trustees who hold or place deposits in their professional capacity may qualify as a Professional Trustee for the purposes of CDIC's deposit insurance protection.

For more information on how to determine if you are a Professional Trustee, and if the Professional Trustee framework is right for you, please visit:
